A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL.

This is the day chosen by Christendom to celebrate a great event—the birth of Jesus Christ. Whether the 25th of December be precisely the day on which the event occurred is a matter of small importance: the fact that such an event did occur, nearly nineteen centuries ago, is recognized throughout the Christian world. Sacred historians record that the announcement was made by an Angel from heaven, in these words, "Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. Unto you is born this day, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord." And the Angel and his attendants sang, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

Since then many years and many centuries have rolled round, and many generations of mortals have appeared and vanished, but we, the living of to-day, follow in the wake of our fore-fathers in the commemoration of that birth over which the Angels rejoiced. To patrons and non-patrons, to friends and strangers, to all, we say from our inmost nature, we wish you great joy, true peace, and unalloyed happiness. Let feuds and ungenerous sentiments and hard words be dissolved in feelings and wishes of kindness and good will.

CHRISTMAS TREE AT THE CHINESE CHURCH.

At half-past six all the little ones with their parents and a number of friends of all nationalities had assembled in the rooms below the Church. The rooms were handsomely decorated with ferns and flowers and texts in Chinese and English, also a number of cards as memory aids to scenes in the life of our Lord. In the end of the room, at the back, stood the Christmas tree and tables covered with good things to eat. The tree was handsomely decorated with bunches of mandarin oranges, and ropes of popcorn and tinfoil.

After preliminary exercises showing great proficiency in the scholars in reading, recitation, and singing, Prof. F. Damon made his maiden public speech in Chinese which was thoroughly understood and appreciated. The distribution of gifts then took place and the little ones were soon loaded with toys, candy and pictures. The guests departed about 8.

His Majesty and Mr. Gibson were both present and greatly interested. Mr. Goo Kim also showed himself to the van of those aiding in the good cause. A Chinese school has been started for girls which is quite a new departure in Chinese custom. Miss Payson and Miss Clench the two English teachers and Mr. F. Damon are to be congratulated on the success of their work so far.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS.

It was a happy thought on the part of the Library Association to celebrate the Christmas season by the presentation of Dickens' celebrated "Carol." This gem of mingled humor and pathos has fairly attained the position of a "classic." It was well rendered to an appreciative audience on Friday evening last by ladies and gentlemen whose talents are well-known in our community. The music furnished for the occasion by the Amateur Quintette Club was of unusual excellence. The audience, though not quite as large as at some former entertainment given by the same Association, was very satisfactory considering the multiplicity of other festivities both public and private which occurred on the same evening and the threatening weather about 7 o'clock.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Likelike brought yesterday 1365 bags sugar and 3 horses.

The schooner Ka Moi and the ship Hope are being repaired and refitted by Mr. Emmes near the Fish-market.

The whaling bark Fleetwing, Capt. Nye, which has been lying off the harbor for the last day or two sailed yesterday to the westward for a cruise. She came here direct from San Francisco.

The whaling bark Arnoldi, Capt. Jones, arrived off port Saturday from San Francisco. She went away again in the afternoon.

The Caibarien arrived on Saturday 17 days from San Francisco.

THE Y. M. C. A.

Held their usual monthly meeting on Friday night in the Bethel vestry. The usual business was gone through. Amongst the reports of the committees we noticed that Dr. Hitchcock, of Dartmouth college is to be invited to come out here to give a series of lectures. Dr. Whitney then read an able and deeply interesting paper on "Why we should have a Y. M. C. A. in Honolulu."

IN MEMORIAM.

THE LATE WILLIAM AUSTIN.

The sad accident which terminated the earthly existence of the late Mr. WILLIAM AUSTIN, cut short a useful life in the vigor of health and the prime of manhood, and deprived Hawaii of one of her noblest sons. He was a native by birth, of mixed parentage, and within four days of 38 years old. For many years he was principal Government Carpenter. Most of our wharves and many other public structures were planned by his brain and constructed by his hand. At the time of his death he was a member of the Fire Department, a member of the Knights of Pythias, and Captain of the Leleiohoku Guards. To the public he was known as a man of untiring industry, faithful and skilful in the performance of his duties. His friends and close acquaintances recognized in him a man of unsurpassed integrity, honor, and generosity. These sterling heart qualities he possessed to a greater degree than the average of men. One so thoroughly unselfish, and so ready at all times to do anything and everything in his power to promote the happiness of others, can rarely be found. This is the heart-felt testimony of one who knew him long and well, and feels his loss as the loss of a brother. His untimely death makes a blank in a sorrowing family, a large social circle, and the public service, that cannot be filled.

THE FUNERAL.

Took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at his late residence, his remains being deposited in the family vault on the premises. In addition to the various companies of firemen, the Knights of Pythias, the military, squad of police, and a very large concourse of people—both native and foreign—assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed. The Rev. H. Parker read the service for the dead, and delivered an impressive address, eulogistic of the deceased and consolatory to the sorrowing relatives. The Knights of Pythias also recited their solemn and beautiful burial ceremony. The coffin was then placed in the tomb, and three volleys of musketry discharged by his old comrades in arms. The whole scene was rendered doubly solemn and impressive by the plaintive strains of the Royal Hawaiian Band, which was in attendance, under the leadership of Professor H. Berger.

LOCAL AND GENERAL ITEMS.

The long bridge at Waikiki has a hole in it, and those busses, &c., still go over it considerably faster than a walk.

A couple of fine paintings are on exhibition at Mr. Wells' Music Store. They are by Mr. Denny of San Francisco, and represent the first and last land seen on the voyage between here and there—namely Diamond Head and the Golden Gate.

Prof. W. D. Alexander has finished the triangulation which connects Molokai with Maui and Lanai, and the greater part of the triangulation of Molokai itself. Messages were successfully sent by heliograph from Molokai to Lanai.

Mr. W. D. Bamber, the starter of the original baggage express in this town, notifies in another column, that he will be found at Ashley & Co.'s office as manager of the baggage department. We feel sure this means an increase of patronage to this deserving firm.

It is said that a certain fugitive from our shores under the pinions of his favorite bird got something like $50 ahead of the city bill collector. For this reason many people hope that he will ultimately succeed, as they are delighted with his smartness.

Friday night was a gay night: Party at Waikiki; do. at the house of our best business men Band at Emma Square; Library and Reading Room Association's entertainment; Chinese Church Christmas cheer; Y.M.C.A. meeting and E. P. Adams' auction sale.

Mr. N. O. Murphy left on the Suez on Friday without anyone being aware of his intention. A cab-driver named John Watson also left. An observer tells us that he drove down to the wharf, left his express standing and jumped on board. We believe that in both cases their sudden departure is regretted.

A FRIEND lately returned from Hawaii tells us that leprosy is making fearful ravages there. He instances, as a specially disgusting case, a house full of lepers near the Catholic Mission, Kohala, about Lincoln's hill who were more repulsive in appearance than those at the settlement at Kalawao.

TREES are now being planted on the western side of Punchbowl, and by-and-by we shall have a forest growing up, if—; but we shall never have any trees growing there at all if the goats are not kept off. Quite a herd of young goats wander at will, and browse on the tender shoots of the young algarobas, notwithstanding the fact that animals are taboo there.

THERE was quite a war amongst the well-borers the other morning. Two of them met and without warning one of them hauled off hit the other in the eye: "What did you do that for?" said he. "You have been saying so-and-so about me!" "Well, if that's all, I'm not going to wear this about town for nothing!" So he reached out and picked up a piece of batten and hit the other a blow across the side of the face. After a few moments of silence on both sides a mutual "come and take a drink" was heard, and they adjourned.

WILLIAM D. BAMBER begs to notify his friends and the public generally that he has made permanent arrangement with Messrs. Ashley & Co. to superintend the baggage department. 280 31
